

Rugged topography and wild spaces that I've seen generate the ideas for my paintings. Though firmly rooted in my home state of Connecticut, I spent formative years in Southern California and the United Kingdom, traveling coast to coast and country to country. I earned a Bachelor's degree in Fine Arts from Skidmore College in Saratoga Springs, NY, and a Master of Arts in Painting from the University of Edinburgh, Scotland. I am a past Rotary Ambassadorial Scholar and a recipient of the Berkshire Taconic Community Foundation Artist Trust Award (2019). In May of 2020 I was awarded the Artists Respond Grant from the Connecticut Office of the Arts and the 2024 recipient of the Elizabeth L. Mahaffey Arts Administration Fellowship. My home and art practice is based in Litchfield County, CT. For purchase or exhibition of artwork, as well as inquiries related to teaching or music, click contact.
